RE: Yellowcake, Inc. v. Revilla Records LLC, et al.
SDNY Case No. 1:23-cv-09190

Dear Judge Vyskocil:

This firm represents Plaintiff, Yellowcake Inc., ("Yellowcake") in the above-referenced matter. We are filing this letter motion pursuant to Your Honor's local part rules to request a brief extension of time in which to file Plaintiff's proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law concerning damages (the "Damages Submission") pursuant to the scheduling order dated August 9, 2024 (Dkt. 52).

Plaintiff's Damages Submission is presently due September 9, 2024. Plaintiff requests an extension of time in which to file its Damages Submission to September 27, 2024, but Plaintiff will use best efforts to file the Damages Submission before then. This is Plaintiff's first request for an extension of time regarding this matter.

Counsel for Plaintiff requests an extension of time due to unexpected emergency motion practice that arose after being out of the office the end of August. The requested extension of time does affect any other scheduled dates.

Lastly, this application is being made without the consent of any of the Defendants because Defendants have defaulted in this matter and the undersigned is not aware of any counsel representing Defendants from whom he could request consent, and Defendants have not participated in this action.

Respectfully submitted,

Seth L. Berman
